Sanford Data Collaborative

SANFORD RESEARCH

The Sanford Data Collaborative Teaching Dataset provides healthcare data for the use of instructing students of all levels. Identifying information has been removed from the data (according to Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act HIPPA de-identification method Safe Harbor § 164.514(b)(2)). Data selected are a substantial subset, however they may not be entirely representative of the population. Variable values have been manipulated to decrease distinguishability while still maintaining variable relationships. In addition, the dataset has not been cleaned and may contain human data entry errors and NULL values.

Users of the Sanford Data Collaborative Teaching Dataset agree to comply with all terms and conditions of the Teaching Dataset User Agreement. By checking below, you agree:

- to use the Sanford Data Collaborative Teaching Dataset for the purposes of instructing students only, and to not use the data for research or commercial purposes.

- to preserve and protect the confidentiality of, and not attempt to identify, any individuals in the dataset.

- to establish safeguards with your students and colleagues to prevent unauthorized viewing or sharing of the Sanford Data Collaborative Teaching Dataset.

X I, _Carrie Olson-Manning_ , agree to these terms and conditions.
